

Janice

Instrument(s): Voice, beginning keyboard, beginning guitar

Education: BA in vocal performance from Edinboro University, MA in Ethnomusicology with a concentration on vocal styles from San Diego State University.

Background: Has been teaching private lessons for 20 years and has been teaching with World of Music since winter 2010. From 1981 to 1988 performed vocals and guitar for Ramblin' Rose. Has studied and performed jazz and swing music. Has also studied East Indian singing and performed with various native teachers.

Strengths: Has taught students from ages 2 ½ to 83 years. Is knowledgeable and is able to teach different types of music from around the world. Has worked with students who have special needs. Loves to teach!