

Instructor: Andrew

Basics:

Teaches: Tenor Sax, Alto Sax, Flute, and Clarinet

Time Played: Well over 20 years

Teaching Experience: 20 years

Length of Time Teaching for World of Music: 1 year

Education: Musical Studies: Berklee College of Music, 1975-76

-M.A. Teaching of English: Teacher's College, Columbia Univ., 1971

-B.A. School of General Studies, Columbia University, 1969

Background:

In addition to Andrew's extensive educational studies, he has also had plenty of experience in performance. He performed in the Costa Riviera Orchestra on Costa Cruise Lines, as well as the Universe Orchestra on Carnival Cruise Lines. Andrew was a cofounder/promoter/musician for In a Mellow Mood – Quartet, performing jazz and pop standards as well as original music. He also performed in 3 other bands: Business, Marble City Swing Band, and Vermont Blues Project. Andrew has also been involved in the White River Theatre Festival and performed at Weston Playhouse in Vermont. In addition, he has been a part of Stage One Productions and George Devens Productions. Prior to teaching here at World of Music, Andrew has consistently been teaching private lessons since 1987 both privately and in other establishments including Falls Music Center and Pierson Music.

Strengths:

- Extensive Education
- Wide-ranging playing experience
- Proficient in many styles of playing and teaching